Financial Report:

Motion: Larry Peterson + Jim McCulloch that the financial report be approved – carried.

Coalition of the Willing:

Darren Foster reported they had a successful planning session. Dec. 7 – Christmas Down the Line has been organized – radio and posters. Christmas Lights and Gnomes are being worked on.

Darren will take on the Angel Street Lights project. This will involve working with the Town and Algoma Power.

COW will come up with a financial plan for 2020 activities to be submitted to the Chamber.

Parking:

COW is trying to get a meeting with the Town + MTO + local businesses on how to deal with parking issues during the big dig downtown.

Community Safety Zone:

A letter of support will be sent in to the Town today

Promotions at Marina:

The boater’s bags don’t appear to be working well and there is a need to think of another project to promote the local marina and area.

Citizen of the Year:

This annual event is being planned for February 2020. The committee is open to receiving names of local citizens who should be recognized.
