AlgomaTrad Spring 2022 Trivia Night FUNdraiser, Saturday, April 23, on Zoom

Algoma - The AlgomaTrad Trivia FUNdraiser is a night of friendship and friendly competition with the goal of raising money for AlgomaTrad programs and events. Once again, Trivia Night will take place on Zoom – your team will be together in a break-out room to answer the questions, then will join all the other teams in between rounds to listen to some musical performances and find out the answers. You can join with a team of 8 or sign up as an individual online at algomatradonline.ca/trivia-night

When: Saturday, April 23, 7pm

Where: In your own home, or wherever you can get online to Zoom!

Cost: $25/person

AlgomaTrad is a not-for-profit arts organization that is dedicated to the sharing, celebration, and learning of traditional music, dance, art and heritage craft. AlgomaTrad's priorities are inclusivity and building multi-generational community through these living traditions. AlgomaTrad hosts community dances, concerts, and workshops throughout the year, a week-long family-friendly traditional music, dance and arts camp each August, and educational programs in local schools.
